Topic Name: Application Controller Pattern
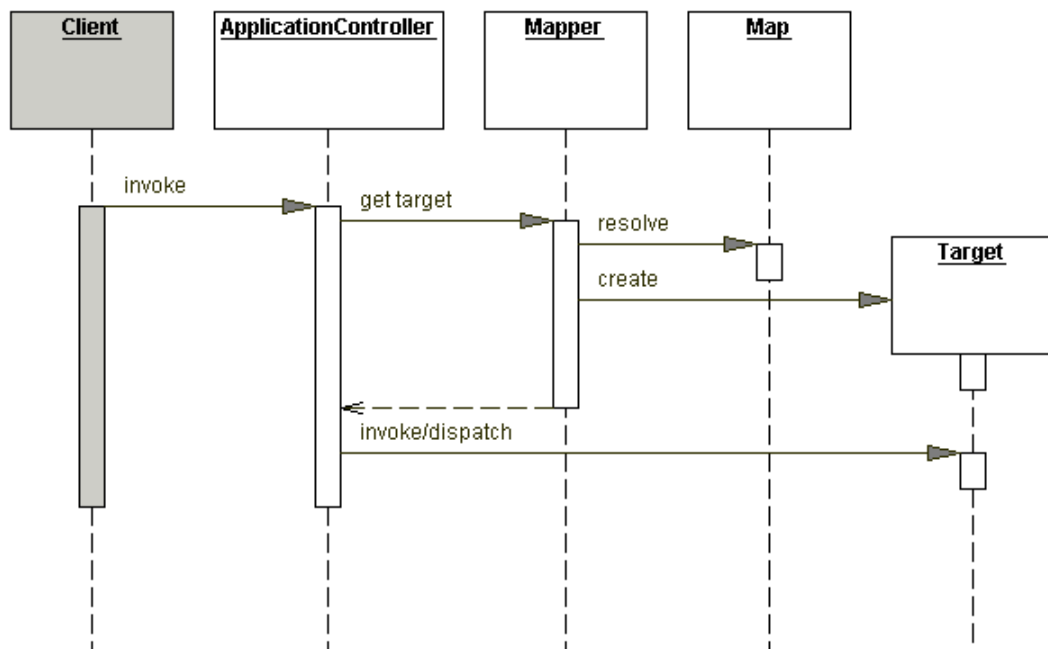

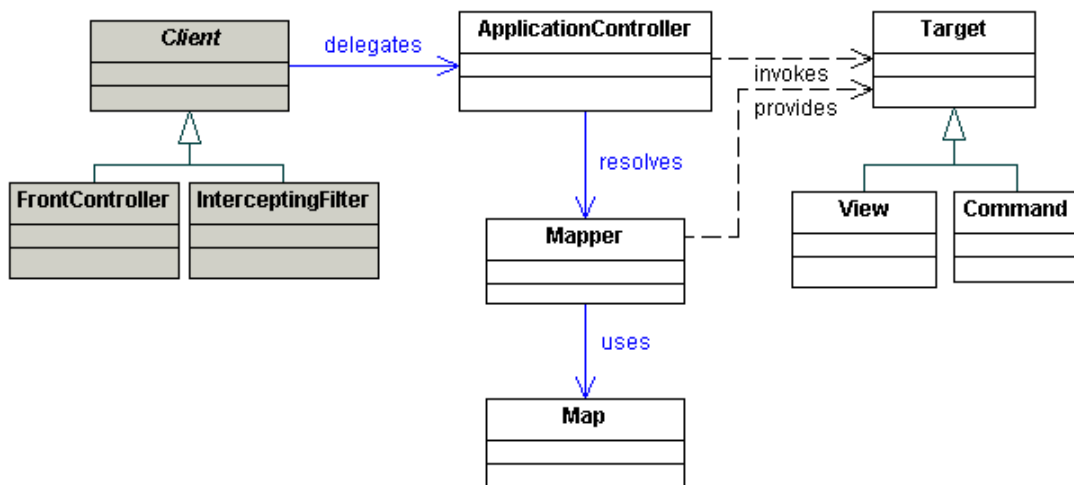

Brief Introduction:
The purpose of this design pattern is to help simplify how an application processes things such as views to a user or to help break down the application into more modular pieces that can be used to test the code. Think of it as being a view-management handler or a request-handler.

(Pictures from: http://www.corej2eepatterns.com/ApplicationController.htm)
Teaching Description:
None yet.

Teaching Examples:

None yet.

Files to View:

None yet.